Wine Route and Viticulture

I. Tokaj Wine Route

 The Tokaj wine region is the smallest vineyard area both in Slovakia and in the world. It covers only area of 907 ha and lies southward from Trebišov. The wine region includes the villages Bara, Čerhov, Černochov, Malá Tŕňa, Slovenské Nové Mesto, Veľká Tŕňa, Viničky, Borša, Zemplín, Ladmovce etc.

The Tokaj wine region is peculiar by its own wine grape varieties that are Furmint, Lipovina and Muškát žltý. Dry (Altar Wine, Dry Tokaj Spontaneous Wine), sweet (Sweet Tokaj Spontaneous Wine, 2-6 puttony Tokaj selection) and varietal wines are produced from them.

Because of the fact that this vineyard area is so specific and its history, attractions, traditions and customs, technologies of production or grape growing method are attractive for people, a so-called Tokaj Wine Route was established to promote tourism, culture and cultural and social life in this region.

On Tokaj Wine Route, you can find Tokaj villages, wine breeders and viticulturalists, cultural and historical monuments, wine shops, wine bars, providers of catering and accommodation services, travel agencies, craftsmen and associations participating in development of the Tokaj wine region.

Tokaj Macík Winery, s.r.o., Malá Tŕňa

This young progressive family winery operates in the centre of Slovak Tokaj. It follows a rich wine-growing tradition. New generation of this vineyard family also further maintains winemaking of classical Tokaj wine that implies production using oxidation method and wine matures in medieval tufa cellar. Future belongs to wines of the new generation, and that is why you will also find a new production hall in Malá Tŕňa where "modern Tokaj" is produced by special reduction technology from the basic varieties of Furmint, Lipovina and Muškát žltý.

Directly at their winery, the Macíks offer accommodation for 23 persons in a new stylish guesthouse and right in the medieval tufa cellar, offer wine tasting as well as traditional Zemplín and Hungarian gastronomic specialties.

Anna Nagyová - Zlatý strapec, Viničky

 The company Zlatý strapec was founded in 1992 by the married couple Anna and Gejza Nagy and belongs to the most famous private vineyard companies in Tokaj wine region. The winery is a recognized label holder of the wines originating in the Tokaj region and has gained several awards for its quality products at domestic and international exhibitions.

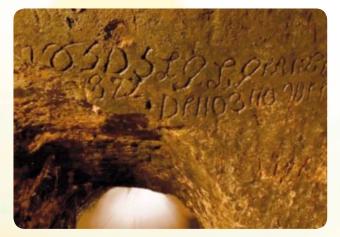

It is a typical family vineyard that already employs three generations of wine growers. The company owns vineyard area of ca. 7 ha, where traditional Tokaj varieties Furmint, Lipovina and Muškát žltý are grown. From the historical point of view, just these varieties have appeared as the most convenient for production of Tokaj wines. Wine is produced by classic oxidation method using modern technologies. Wine matures in tufa cellars with the capacity of 45,000 litres of wine.

A wine tasting room for 16 persons operated all year round is located directly in the interior of the company's cellars. An attractive summer gazebo for 45 hosts in which delicious wines are served and local culinary specialty offered to the tunes of pleasant music is also situated in the premises of the winery. The firm also provides a storage room for long-standing customers to store their own wines.

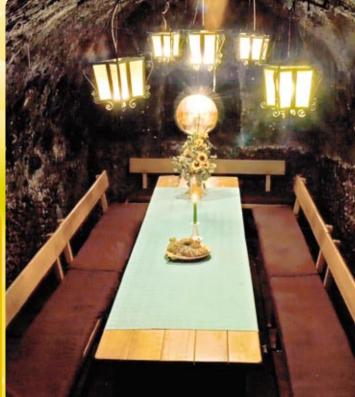

The company Zlatý strapec wins the greatest recognition when people from entire Slovakia come to this small family winery to taste the original Tokaj varietal and selection wines.

Tokaj & CO, s. r. o., Malá Tŕňa

 Winery with the main manufacture in Slovenské Nové Mesto was established in year 2007, but is worth mentioning. Its wines that mature four or twelve years wait for their quality in the unique tufa cellar from the 14th century, which is a national cultural monument. Cellar tunnels stretch the total length of 2.5 km. Besides classic Tokaj wines, the company also produces Tokajský forditáš and Altar Wine.

Tokajská spoločnosť Viničky s.r.o.
